PLAINTIFF PERSONAL INJURY: PRODUCTS

Jason D. Cohn, a founding member of Cohn & Swartzon, P.C., began his legal career practicing complex business litigation and personal injury defense. Since representing injured plaintiffs in 2003, Jason has represented hundreds of clients in plaintiff personal injury matters including catastrophic injury, wrongful death, and victims of crime. In so doing, Jason has recovered millions of dollars in compensation for his clients including a judgment for crime victims in the amount of $6.9 million. Jason prides himself on vigorously representing his clients and also providing them with the close, personal attention they deserve. Jason has guest lectured on legal topics at the University of Southern California and Whittier Law School, and serves as a temporary judge in the Los Angeles County courts.
